

Dragline and Shovel Windshields

I POLICY REQUIREMENTS:

The front windows of all draglines, shovels, excavators or other equipment that can be used to dig blasted materials shall be constructed of laminated bullet resistant or blast resistant glass.

This is intended to provide protection to the operator if an unfired explosive is unintentionally contacted by the bucket and to protect the operator from injury should a rock roll off the highwall or fall from the bucket as it is being moved.